

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 34

NEW YORK POST
28 May 1986

LETTERS

CIA and press

WE should be suspicious that William Casey of the CIA seems more concerned that the press not disclose the ineptitude of his agency to the taxpaying public than he is in keeping secrets from terrorists or the Soviet Union.

If the press comes into possession of such embarrassing material, is he so naive as to think our adversaries can't?

He and his colleagues are responsible for the leaks, not the press.

JOHN HANEY
Manhattan